

I fail to see the logic in the FCC's recent decision (12/16) NOT to impose decency standards on the content of satellite radio. Aren't regulated cable television channels relayed via satellite?? If the FCC allows the foul-mouthed Genie out of the satellite radio bottle, future regulation of this medium will be next to impossible. Seize the moment...act now...IMPOSE DECENCY STANDARDS ON SATELLITE RADIO!